Feedback Committee Report 2022-2023

Students, peer teachers, alumni and employer are the stake holders of the educational institute. The feedback committee was constituted for conduction and evaluation of feedback received from these stake holders. The committee's first meeting was conducted in the first week of September 2022 to prepare the annual plan and assign duties and responsibilities to committee members. The committee taken feedback activity twice in an academic year. Our institute has various UG and PG courses from around 19 departments. Accordingly, we prepared questionnaire of various feedback and it was reviewed by IQAC coordinator and Hon. Principal of our institute. The institution using the Mastersoft ERP system to get feedback from students on the syllabus and the institute, and we used the Google platform to collect feedback from other stakeholders. The committee issued various notices to students, class teachers to motivate the different stake holders to record their feedback. We have received around 70 – 75 % student's feedback on syllabus and about institute. Feedback received from stakeholders were put forwarded to BoS of all subjects for necessary action on suggestions. All analysis reports and action taken report will published on college website.
