Day under Swachhta Hi Seva.

Event: Carter Road Beach Cleaning on the occasion of Costal Clean up Day under Swachhta Hi Seva.

Date: 2nd October, 2024.

Objectives: To reduce marine pollution, protect wildlife and preserve natural habitats.

Highlight: The NSS Unit of our college has organized Carter Road Beach Cleaning on the occasion of Costal Cleanup Day under SHS. The Carter Road Beach Cleaning event, held on Coastal Clean-up Day, brought together over 250 volunteers from local communities, schools, and organizations to restore the beach to its natural beauty. Under the Swachhata Hi Seva initiative, the event aimed to raise awareness about coastal pollution and promote sustainable. Key Highlights included removal of 193 kg of trash and debris from the beach. Conducted a beach survey to identify pollution hotspots and sources. Educated individuals on coastal pollution, waste management, and sustainable practices. It improved beach aesthetics and environment. Enhanced community awareness and engagement. Contributed to national coastal clean-up efforts. Future Plans are to Conduct regular beach clean-ups, establish a sustainable waste management system, expand education and awareness programs, collaborate with local authorities for infrastructure development. The Carter Road Beach Cleaning event demonstrated the power of collective action in protecting India's coastal ecosystems and promoting a cleaner, healthier environment.

Total Number of Volunteers- 20.
