

Report: Session on Personality development and opportunities in education at Convocation Hall Fort.

Event: Session on Personality development and opportunities in education at Convocation Hall Fort.

Date: 14th October, 2024.

Objectives: To provide volunteers strategies for building self-confidence and improving communication skills for a well-rounded personality.

Highlight: The NSS unit of our college has participated in Session on Personality development and opportunities in education at Convocation Hall Fort. The session provided volunteers essential skills for personal growth, such as confidence building, effective communication, and resilience. It showcased pathways for students and young professionals to maximize their potential through education and career planning. Volunteers were able to learn strategies to make informed choices about their future, aligning their strengths and interests with their professional aspirations. This engaging session inspired Volunteers to pursue continuous self-improvement and seize opportunities that contribute to both personal and academic success.
