Highlight: The NSS Unit of our college has organized Sardar Patel Run for Unity Marathon by Jalja Foundation. The vision and contributions of Sardar Patel, India's "Iron Man," who played a crucial role in the unification of India post-independence. The marathon not only commemorates Patel's legacy but also serves as a powerful platform to inspire national unity, bringing together people from diverse backgrounds to celebrate the strength in togetherness. Additionally, it emphasizes the importance of health and fitness, encouraging participants to adopt a more active lifestyle. This annual marathon brings together people from all walks of life to reinforce the message of unity, patriotism, and resilience that Patel championed throughout his life. It highlights the values of courage, dedication, and the vision Patel had for a harmonious India, and it seeks to inspire participants to embrace these ideals in their own lives. Through this event, the Jalja Foundation aims to create a strong community bond, foster inter-generational engagement, and instill a sense of pride in India's historical achievements, all while underscoring the values that continue to shape a unified and prosperous future.
