Highlight: The NSS Unit of our college has organized session on Mann ki Baat by Akshara Foundation. It was inspiring initiatives that focus on enhancing education and literacy in underserved communities. The foundation emphasized the importance of equitable access to quality learning resources, especially in rural and remote areas, where educational support is often limited. Through its innovative programs, Akshara Foundation has mobilized community volunteers, parents, and local governments to work collaboratively, making learning accessible and engaging for young students. The session also underscored the importance of holistic development, integrating values and life skills into the curriculum to nurture well-rounded individuals who can contribute meaningfully to society. By leveraging technology, local languages, and culturally relevant content, the foundation seeks to bridge the educational divide, enabling all children, regardless of background, to thrive academically and socially. This commitment to inclusive, high-quality education aligns with the broader goals of Mann ki Baat, resonating with communities across the nation.
