

Report: Campus Ambassador Orientation Session.

Event: Campus Ambassador Orientation Session.

Date: 28th October, 2024.

Objectives: To equip ambassadors with a clear understanding of their roles, responsibilities, and the program's objectives.

Highlight: The NSS unit of our college has participated in the Campus Ambassador Orientation Session. The session highlighted the core values and mission of the program, ensuring ambassadors understand the purpose behind their role. Ambassadors learnt about the organization's objectives, key initiatives, and the expected impact on campus. This portion of the session covered the importance of fostering a strong connection between the organization and the student community, as well as the critical role ambassadors play as representatives. By providing this foundational knowledge, ambassadors will feel well-prepared to represent the organization with confidence and authenticity. They were introduced to various resources and tools available to support their outreach efforts. The session also emphasized practical skills and strategies to ensure successful campus engagement. The session wrapped up by creating a supportive network among ambassadors, encouraging collaboration and knowledge sharing to maximize their collective impact on campus.
