

Report: Online Orientation Session on Vigilance Awareness Week.

Event: Online Orientation Session on Vigilance Awareness Week.

Date: 29th October, 2024.

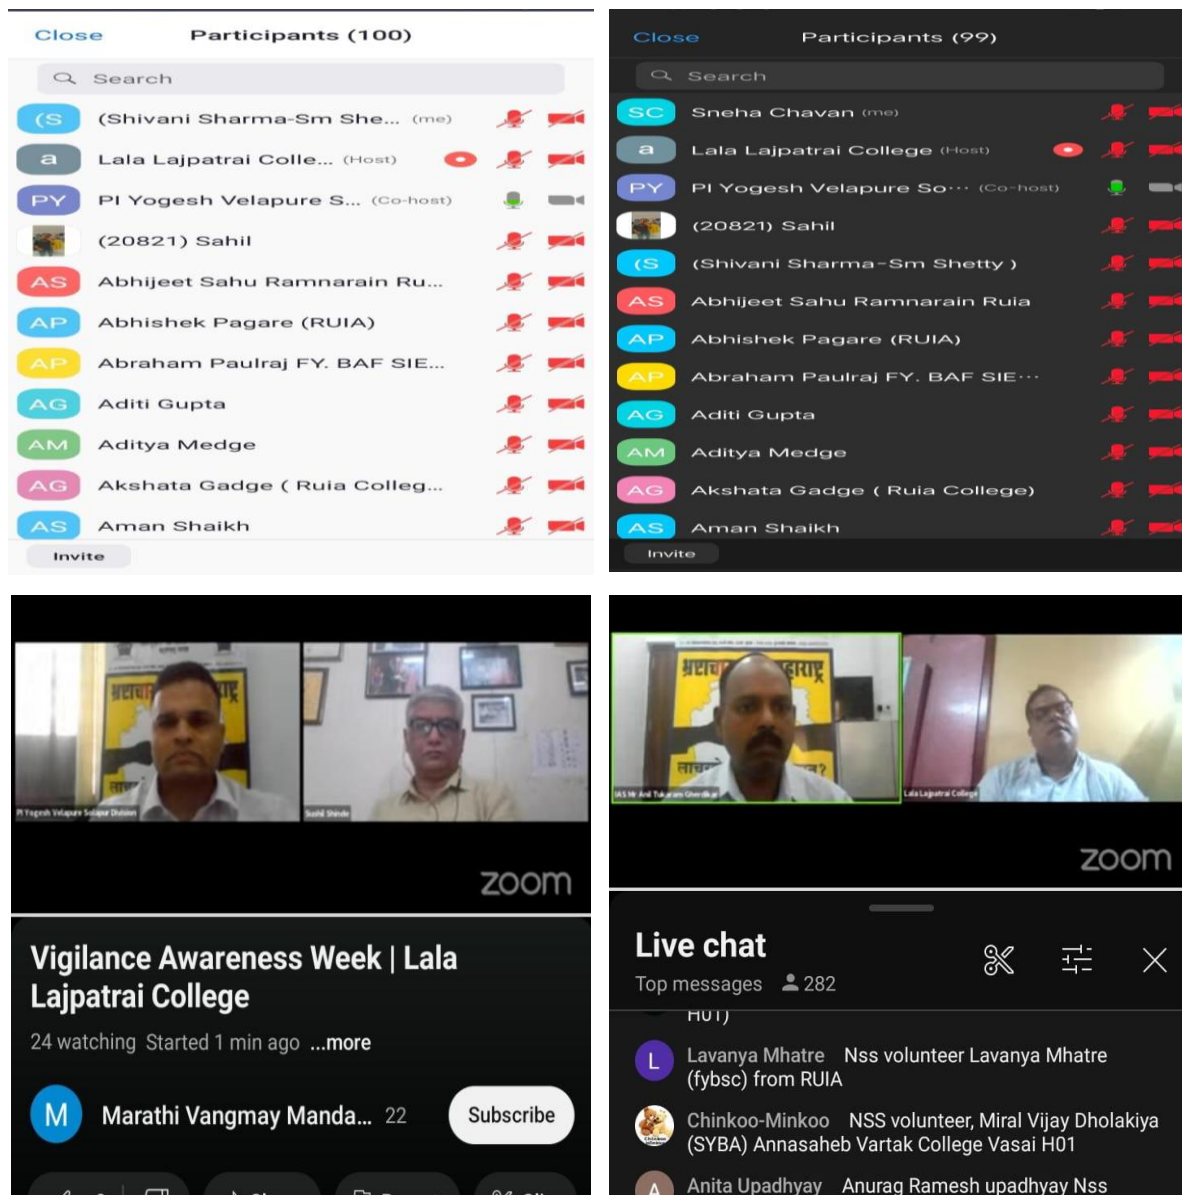

Objectives: To Encourage participants to adopt integrity and ethical practices.

Highlight: The NSS unit of our college has participated in The Online Orientation Session on Vigilance Awareness Week. It was a resounding success, educating participants on vital vigilance and anti-corruption measures. Conducted by esteemed Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) officials and anti-corruption experts, the engaging 60-minute session yielded a remarkable increase in vigilance-related knowledge. Key topics covered included CVC guidelines, corrupt practices, whistleblower protection, and integrity practices, complemented by interactive Q&A sessions and thought-provoking case studies. CVC officials underscored the imperative of transparency, accountability, and integrity, while participants lauded the informative session for heightening their awareness and motivation to report corrupt practices. This impactful initiative not only enhanced understanding of vigilance but also encouraged ethical practices and empowered participants to combat corruption. This session marked a significant milestone in promoting a culture of transparency and accountability.
