Event: Akshara YCP Session on Module Are We Really Equal.

Date: 2nd December, 2024.

Objectives: To encourage participants to think critically about the social and cultural norms that perpetuate inequality.

Highlight: The NSS unit of our college has a session participated in The Akshara YCP Session on Module "Are We Really Equal". It was a thought-provoking and engaging experience for the students. The session began with an icebreaker activity that helped participants relax and get to know each other. The facilitators then led a discussion on the concept of equality, exploring its various dimension. Through interactive activities, group work, and debates, participants were encouraged to think critically about the social and cultural norms that perpetuate inequality. The session also provided a safe space for participants to share their personal experiences and perspectives, fostering empathy and understanding. By the end of the session, participants had gained a deeper understanding of the complexities of equality and had begun to think about ways to promote greater inclusivity and social justice in their own lives and communities. Overall, the session was a resounding success, inspiring participants to become more aware, empathetic, and active citizens.
