Report of the Counselling Centre Orientation Session

Date: 5-7-2021

The counselling centre orientation session for the B.Com and BBI students was organized on 5th July, 2021 from 10.20 to 11.20 AM. Ms. Debbie James welcomed and opened the session. Ms. Natasha Mehta then led a beautiful session through interactive activities like the "tear a corner of the paper" activity and the inducing weight on your hand activity, to bring out important truths. She explained that counselling primarily is about thought, feelings and behaviour. She also introduced the theme of the year- keep learning, keep growing. The session ended with a relaxation session by playing an audio, where she asked the students to calm their minds. Ms. Mehta also introduced the plan to have a mental health club and encouraged the students to be a part of it. She then opened the floor to questions, where she addressed issues raised by students about loss and grief, suicide, mental health, anxiety and fears, and how to deal with these sensitive issues. There were approximately 222 Students(B.Com- 160 students & BBI-62), and a few teachers as well, present for the session. The session ended with a vote of thanks by Ms. Taqdis Pawle, feedback from the students was also collected.
