Event: Beach Clean Up Drive at Carter Road.

Date: 29th December, 2024.

Objectives: To promote environmental awareness and restore the natural beauty of Carter Road beach through collective cleanup efforts.

Highlight: The NSS Unit of our college has participated in Beach Clean-Up Drive at Carter Road, emphasizing environmental conservation and community responsibility. Volunteers actively participated in collecting plastic waste, debris, and other pollutants, restoring the beach's natural beauty. The event highlighted the urgent need to combat marine pollution and protect coastal ecosystems. With great enthusiasm, students and faculty joined hands to spread awareness about sustainable practices and waste management. The drive also included interactive sessions on reducing single-use plastics and the impact of litter on marine life. Participants felt a deep sense of fulfillment, knowing their efforts contributed to a cleaner, healthier environment. By the end of the drive, several kilograms of waste were responsibly segregated and disposed of, showcasing the power of collective action. This impactful event reinforced the NSS motto, "Not Me, But You," encouraging everyone to contribute to societal well-being.
