Report: Author Talk Session.

Event: Author Talk Session.

Date: 13th January, 2025.

Objectives: To provide students and faculty with an opportunity to interact with a renowned author and gain insights into the writing process.

Highlight: The NSS Unit of our college organized the Author Talk Session was an engaging literary event that brought together students, faculty, and literature enthusiasts. The session commenced with a warm welcome and an introduction to the distinguished author, highlighting their contributions to literature. The author shared personal experiences, the journey of writing, and the inspiration behind their works. Attendees were captivated by anecdotes about the challenges and joys of being a writer. The discussion covered various aspects of storytelling, including character development, plot structuring, and the importance of research. The author emphasized the role of reading in shaping a writer's perspective and creativity. Students eagerly participated in a Q&A session, posing insightful questions about writing techniques and the publishing process. The author provided valuable advice to aspiring writers, encouraging them to embrace persistence and originality. Faculty members also engaged in the discussion, drawing connections between literature and academic learning. The session highlighted the evolving landscape of literature in the digital age and the significance of preserving literary traditions. A special segment featured book readings by the author, allowing the audience to experience the magic of storytelling firsthand.

Total Number of Volunteers – 61.
