Event: Blood Donation Volunteering at Vidhyavihar Gaodevi Mandir.

Date: 19th January, 2025.

Objectives: To assist in organizing a successful blood donation camp by guiding donors, managing logistics, and ensuring a smooth process.

Highlight: The NSS Unit organizes the Blood Donation camp at Vidhyavihar Gaodevi Mandir, Mumbai, Maharashtra, saw active participation from volunteers and donors. Volunteers played a crucial role in organizing the event, guiding donors through the registration process, and providing necessary assistance to medical professionals. The event was well-coordinated, ensuring a seamless experience for all participants. Many first-time donors overcame their fears and participated enthusiastically. Awareness campaigns before the event helped increase footfall, leading to a higher turnout than expected. Medical experts provided insights on the benefits of regular blood donation, reassuring donors about the safety of the process. Refreshments and certificates were provided to donors as a token of appreciation. The volunteers efficiently managed the crowd, reducing waiting time and maintaining order. Donors expressed satisfaction with the smooth process and supportive environment. Local residents actively participated, creating a strong community impact. The camp contributed significantly to replenishing blood banks, addressing urgent medical needs.

Total Number Of Volunteers – 12.
