Objectives: To empower youth with awareness, skills, and strategies to prevent, identify.

Highlight: The NSS unit of our college has participants in session on youth against human trafficking The Youth Against Human Trafficking session will highlight key aspects of human trafficking, including its definition, causes, and impact on individuals and society. Participants will learn to identify warning signs and understand the methods traffickers use to exploit victims. The session will also cover legal frameworks and global efforts to combat trafficking, emphasizing the role of youth in prevention and advocacy. Real-life case studies, interactive discussions, and awareness campaigns will be included to enhance engagement. Additionally, the session will provide practical steps for reporting and supporting victims, empowering youth to become active changemakers in their communities. The Youth Against Human Trafficking session will provide a comprehensive understanding of human trafficking, focusing on its different forms, such as labor trafficking, sex trafficking, and child exploitation. It will highlight the factors that make individuals vulnerable, including poverty, lack of education, and online dangers. Participants will explore real-life case studies, survivor testimonies, and interactive role-playing activities to enhance their learning experience. The session will also emphasize the role of technology in trafficking.
