Report: Cloth Donation at Jagruti Nagar.

Event: Cloth Donation at Jagruti Nagar.

Date: 13th February, 2025.

Objectives: To support underprivileged communities by distributing essential clothing

Highlight: The NSS Unit organized Cloth Donation at Jagruti Nagar was a heartfelt initiative aimed at supporting underprivileged families by providing them with essential clothing. The drive began with a collection campaign, where volunteers reached out to communities, schools, and local organizations to gather gently used and new clothes. A sorting center was set up to categorize the clothes by age, gender, and type to ensure organized and respectful distribution. Volunteers diligently checked the donations for quality, ensuring only clean and wearable items were distributed. The initiative emphasized maintaining dignity and respect, creating a warm and welcoming environment for beneficiaries. Distribution was conducted at a community center in Jagruti Nagar, where residents were invited to select clothes as per their needs, promoting a sense of choice and respect. The event witnessed a heartwarming turnout, with smiles and gratitude reflecting the positive impact of the initiative. Special attention was given to distributing winter clothing and blankets, addressing seasonal needs.
