Report: Volunteering at Marathi Diwas Celebration at College.

Event: Volunteering at Marathi Diwas Celebration at College.

Date: 27th February, 2025.

Objectives: To promote Marathi language, culture, and community service through various activities.

Highlight: The NSS Unit successfully organized various activities to celebrate Marathi Diwas. Volunteers conducted Marathi literacy drives to promote the language among students and local communities. Cultural programs, including poetry recitations and folk performances, were arranged to showcase Marathi heritage. A cleanliness drive was carried out in public areas to emphasize social responsibility. Volunteers distributed Marathi books to encourage reading habits among children. Interactive sessions were held to discuss the importance of Marathi literature and history. A street play highlighting social issues in Marathi was performed to spread awareness. Traditional games and activities were organized to engage participants in cultural learning. An essay and speech competition in Marathi was conducted to enhance linguistic skills. Volunteers also visited old age homes to interact with senior citizens and listen to their stories in Marathi. The event concluded with a pledge to preserve and promote the Marathi language and culture.
