Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) Training Session – REPORT

The Incubation-Entrepreneurship Cell of "S.M.Shetty College of Science, Commerce and Management Studies, Powai, organized a training session in collaboration with BIS (Bureau of Indian Standards) on 11th October 2023, Wednesday at 11:30 am in AV Room to highlight the functions of BIS and its innovative activities.

The session provided insights on Door-to-door campaign organized by BIS in celebration of World Standards Day. As part of its outreach efforts, BIS have conducted door-to-door activities to engage with consumers, raise awareness about standards, and gather feedback on product quality. It was discussed in the meeting that BIS's door-to-door activity can play a crucial role in promoting consumer awareness and ensuring the quality of products in the market. The feedback gathered during these activities will contribute for continuous improvement and will help in addressing consumer concerns effectively.

Following topics were discussed in the session:-

- Disseminate information about the importance of adhering to quality standards.
- Educate students about the BIS certification mark and its significance.
- The volunteers will be given honorarium of Rs.1500/- each to visit 30 households after filling their feedback in the BIS CARE app.
- Volunteers were given a Kit which will be used during the promotion of BIS standards and the significance of the BIS certification mark.
- Volunteers have to address any queries or concerns raised by consumers regarding standards and certification.
- The session aimed to create awareness about consumer rights and the role of standards in ensuring product quality.
- Volunteers will collect feedback from residents regarding their experiences with BIS-certified products.
- Increase public awareness through targeted marketing campaigns.
- Strengthen collaboration with local communities and associations to enhance outreach.
- Utilize digital platforms for continuous engagement and information dissemination.
- BIS's door-to-door activity will play a crucial role in promoting consumer awareness and ensuring the quality of products in the market. The feedback gathered during these activities will contribute to continuous improvement and will address consumer concerns effectively.

Report

Bunts Sangha's S.M. Shetty College of Science Commerce and Management Studies, Powai organized a one day National Seminar on Saturday, 20th January 2024 on "Transforming Education- India's National Education Policy 2020: Issues, Challenges and Opportunities" sponsored by Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR). The event was held in the conference room of SM Shetty College of commerce and Management studies and was graced by special guests and participants from various other colleges. Chairman Powai Education Committee Sri Ratnakar Shetty Mundkur and Chief Guest Dr. Shobhana Vasudevan, Principal, R A Podar College of Commerce and Economics, Matunga along with Principal Dr. Sridhara Shetty, Vice Principals Dr. Liji Santosh and CS Sandesha Shetty, Chief Operating Officer (Admin and Academics) Dr. Sandeep Singh graced the event.

Principal Dr. Sridhara Shetty welcomed the gathering by adding a few key points on the advantages of NEP and mentioning about the challenges we will face while creating a curriculum which will be fruitful for the coming generation. He also expressed his gratitude towards all the resource persons and participants for taking time and for being a part of the seminar.

Speaking on the occasion, Chairman- Shri Ratnakar Shetty Mundkur in his speech, appreciated the unwavering support of staff. He also mentioned the tireless work of PEC and that new goals should be attainment of autonomy and progress towards NEP.

Chief guest Dr. Shobhana Vasudevan, in her keynote address, mentioned various positive changes that NEP will result in. She spoke about the objectives and strategies teachers should adapt along with the changes in curriculum. The New Education Policy supports the lifelong learning experience. She also mentioned that change in levels of education has to be addressed and it won't be easy on both ends, for teachers as well as students. The new policy document will also give the flexibility in enhancing knowledge and the authority and inclusivity to deal with diverse students.

Session 1- "Outcome Based Education- Demystifying CO's and PO's"

The first session was on "Outcome Based Education- Demystifying CO's and PO's", conducted by Dr. Sreela Dasgupta, Associate Professor of Chemistry, Jai Hind College. She spoke on how with the introduction of NEP and outcome based teaching, teachers are merely the facilitation for students to achieve their potential. Here the student is a focal point. NEP also gives the freedom in designing the curriculum by the facilitator. Assessing a student is not purely based on marks but whether the purpose of delivery has reached its goal or not. She also explained the process of mapping POs, COs and attainment.

Session 2- “Inclusion and Equity in Higher Education”

Dr. Vasumathi Badrinathan, Associate Professor, Department of French, University of Mumbai, was the speaker for the second session “Inclusion and Equity in Higher Education”. She spoke about the opportunity and a fair chance that NEP would give to all individuals by 2040, regardless of social, economic background. She mentioned the importance the NEP gives to inclusions of all kinds and the need to accept diversities while promoting equality. Her session was an interactive one as she asked teachers about problems faced in the classrooms and how to overcome them by being self aware and using various examples that the roots of the Indian Gurukul system offered.

Session 3- “ICT in Education and NEP 2020”

Dr. Vinod Kumar Kanvaria, Associate Professor (ET and ICT), University of Delhi was the speaker for the third session - “ICT in Education and NEP 2020”. Dr. Kavaria enlightened the audience about the introduction of AI in education and about the pros and cons of it. He further added ICT (Information Communication Technology) and digitalization will be much more efficient and less of a burden on teachers. He addressed the gathering about the inclusion of E-courses in Indian languages and that in NEP 2020 English will be taught as merely a subject and more focus will be on Regional Indian languages.

Session 4- “Indian Knowledge System”

The final session was conducted by Ms. Kalpana Chavan, Assistant Professor, St. Xavier's Institute of Education (Autonomous) on "Indian Knowledge System". Study of ancient civilization creates a foundation in understanding the Indian Knowledge System and also promotes the Indian systems of science, mathematics and architecture. She further added that it is very important to study the roots of our nation and go back to ancient history, the rich heritage and knowledge created and acquired by Indians. While studying and reading various sources that offer information about Indian History, it is also very important to cite the authenticity and identify the primary sources. She also added that IKS should be more practical and less theoretical to make it interesting in classrooms.

The seminar was truly a fruitful one and the participants who came from various colleges expressed their gratitude for organizing a seminar which was the need of the hour and information the resource persons had to offer. The seminar ended with a vote of thanks as proposed by Asst. Prof. Kalpana Rai Menon, Convenor of the National Seminar.

Report

An enriching session on "Winning Personalities" was organised by IQAC Department of Bunts Sangha's SM Shetty College of Science, Commerce & Management Studies, Powai in Collaboration with Dainik Bhaskar for faculties on 14th October 2023 at 11.15am in Audio Visual Room. The Resource person for the day was Deepak Redgaonkar- Motivational Speaker, Senior Training Consultant and success coach. The session started by welcoming the resource person by our Principal Dr. Sridhara Shetty along with participants. Resource person was introduced by our Vice Principal CS Sandesha Shetty. The key takeaways by the session were

- Winning personalities are defined by traits such as confidence, resilience, emotional intelligence, and integrity.
- Developing a winning personality requires continuous self-reflection, goal setting, and improvement.
- Authenticity and positive relationships play a significant role in shaping how others perceive and connect with us.
- Overcoming negative self-talk and embracing self-belief are essential to becoming a true winner in life.

The Session was both thought-provoking and motivational, offering participants a toolkit of strategies and insights to help them enhance their personal and professional lives. Attendees left the session feeling inspired and empowered, equipped with actionable steps to cultivate a more positive, confident, and winning personality. The session concluded with a call to action: to take charge of one's personal growth and step into the world with the mindset of a winner.

संमिनार: मोटिवेटर दीपक रेडगांवकर ने विद्यार्थियों के भविष्य को लेकर शिक्षकों को किया प्रेरित सोच की दिशा से बदलेगी जीवन की दशा

भास्कर संवाददाता मुंबई

बच्चों की सोच को जब सही दिशा देंगे, तब उनके जीवन की दशा जरूर बदल जाएगी। यह बात मशहूर मोटिवेटर दीपक रेडगांवकर ने कही। रेडगांवकर आईक्यूएसी की ओर से शनिवार को पवई स्थित एसएम शेट्टी शैक्षणिक संस्था हॉल में मोटिवेशनल सेमिनार में बोल रहे थे। सेमिनार में विद्यार्थियों के भविष्य को लेकर मशहूर मोटिवेटर रेडगांवकर ने शिक्षकों का मार्गदर्शन किया। उन्होंने कहा कि जीवन जीने की किताब नहीं, बल्कि जीवन में आने वाली चुनौतियों और मुश्किलों से कैसे पार पाना चाहिए, इसकी तैयारी है। मानसिक

तैयारी किए बिना किसी भी चुनौती और समस्या से पार नहीं पाया जा सकता। उन्होंने कहा कि चुनौतियों और मुश्किलों पर विजय पाने के लिए सही विचार, दृढ़ विश्वास, जीवन के प्रति सार्थक दृष्टिकोण, प्रबल इच्छाशक्ति और अशावादी रवैया बहुत जरूरी है। यदि इन सब बातों को ध्यान में रखकर इंसान अपने भविष्य की प्लानिंग करेगा, तो निश्चित ही उसका जीवन सफल होगा और वह हर मुश्किलों और चुनौतियों विजय प्राप्त करेगा। इस अवसर पर कॉलेज के प्रिंसिपल डा. श्रीधर शेट्टी, उप प्रधानाचार्य डॉ. लीजा संतोष, सीएस संदेश शेट्टी, प्रतिभा गाडगली सहित अध्यापक और विद्यार्थी उपस्थित थे।
