Report

The CO-PO (Course Outcomes-Program Outcomes) Workshop, held on 1st September 2023, aimed to enhance the understanding and implementation of COs and POs within our academic institution. The workshop provided a platform for faculty members to collaborate, share insights, and align their teaching methodologies with the desired outcomes of the courses and programs.

Resource person for the session was Dr. Mahindra Parihar, Associate Professor, NMIMS University, Mumbai.

The primary objectives of the workshop were as follows:

- To familiarize faculty with the concept of COs and POs.
- To emphasize the importance of aligning course outcomes with program outcomes.
- To facilitate discussions on effective assessment strategies to measure COs and POs.
- To encourage the integration of CO-PO mapping into the curriculum development process.

Useful workshop

A follow session after we try the method discussed today

Precise and interactive session

Would like to have more sessions like this which helps us in developing perceptives about academics. As a new faculty, this session was really an informative and has solved many of my doubts.

Good one

Good session
