WOMAN DEVELOPMENT CELL POCSO REPORT

Date: 29th August 2024

Venue: 812 Room

Time: 10:30 Am

The Women Development Cell (WDC) successfully organized an insightful session on Financial Literacy on 29th August 2024. The session aimed to empower students with the essential knowledge and tools required to manage personal finances effectively, fostering financial independence and awareness.

The primary goal of the session was to provide students with practical guidance on financial planning, saving, and investing, helping them take informed financial decisions for a secure future.

The session was conducted by Mr. Shivaji Ghule, Branch Manager, LIC Powai, who brought with him a wealth of experience and expertise in financial planning and investment strategies. The session began with a warm welcome by the WDC members, followed by a brief introduction of the esteemed resource person. Mr. Ghule then took over, delivering an engaging and highly informative talk that covered:

Mr. Ghule shared real-life examples, practical tips, and success stories to motivate students and make the session relatable.

The session witnessed active participation from students across various streams. A Q&A segment allowed students to address their doubts and seek personalized advice from Mr. Ghule, who patiently and thoroughly addressed all queries.
