SAMARTH FEST REPORT

The Women Development Cell (WDC) of S. M. Shetty College hosted a series of events from 22nd to 23rd January 2025, fostering creativity, critical thinking, and awareness on gender-related issues. These events brought together students from various colleges and provided platforms for intellectual discourse, talent showcase, and discussions on gender equality and inclusivity.

On 22nd January, the inauguration of Samarth, the first-ever fest organized by WDC, took place with great enthusiasm. The ceremony featured a warm welcome, a logo reveal, and a mono act performance that captivated the audience. Dr. Liji Santosh, the Vice Principal of the college, along with WDC representatives, emphasized the importance of empowering students and promoting inclusivity. The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks, marking the official launch of the fest.

That same day, the WDC hosted an Inter-Collegiate Elocution Competition on the topic The Impact of Media on Gender Perception. With participants given 15 minutes to organize and present their speeches, the event witnessed strong performances. The competition was judged based on voice modulation, content, and presentation. The winners included Gayathri Kumar Pillai from Dr. BMN College of Home Science, Ritesh Singh, and Aashna K. Shetty from SM Shetty College.

On 22nd January 2025, as part of SAMARTH 2024-2025, the Women Development Cell organized an Essay Writing competition. Students from various colleges participated enthusiastically, showcasing their writing skills on topics related to gender inclusivity. The event was judged by CA Zainab, and Ms. Smitha Ravindranath, whose valuable insights and expertise added great value to the competition. The participation and evaluation process were highly engaging, and we are grateful for the judges' support. Their presence and contribution were instrumental in the success of the event, and we look forward to their continued association with future initiatives.

In the afternoon, the Case Study competition took place with a surprise topic for participants, testing their ability to think on their feet. Five contestants presented their arguments, demonstrating exceptional skills in critical thinking, research, and public speaking. After careful evaluation by Adv. Jyoti Sharma, Varad Magdum and Dhruv

Shetty claimed first place, while Neetu Mandal, Sahil Gole, and Bhoomika Sonar took second place.

On 23rd January, the WDC organized an Intra-Collegiate Film Review Competition, where students analyzed and presented their views on a film. This session, led by Prof. Nidhi Chandorkar, encouraged critical thinking and creativity, with winners Shaun & Kiran, Ishika & Shrushti, and Kashish & Harsh being recognized for their outstanding performances.

The same day, the Samarth Inter-Collegiate Fest Panel Discussion on Gender Equality and Inclusivity featured distinguished speakers such as Mr. Harish Sadani, co-founder of Men Against Violence and Abuse (MAVA), Dr. Liji Santosh, and Dr. Shivani Ahluwalia, an educator and certified POSH trainer. The discussion focused on breaking gender stereotypes, addressing socio-economic challenges faced by women, and promoting inclusivity in education and workplaces. The session concluded with an interactive Q&A, where students raised insightful questions and received actionable responses from the panelists.

These events not only provided a platform for students to express themselves but also sparked meaningful conversations about gender equality, inclusivity, and the role of education in shaping societal norms. The WDC's initiative to organize these activities was met with great enthusiasm, encouraging participants to reflect on their roles in fostering a more equitable society. The success of these events has inspired the WDC to continue hosting such competitions and discussions in the future.
