Bunts Sangha's S.M.Shetty College's Department of mass media and communication skills hosted its first "Alumni Guardian Angel" session for the academic year 2021-22.

The session started with HOD Prof. Kalpana Rai Menon introducing the AGA Program.

The Guardian Angel for this session was Ms Trisha Hegde. She is an International Higher Education Expert, currently working with Navitas Europe. She graduated from the University of Essex in MA Advertising, Marketing and Media and has also worked with the University of Plymouth, UK, as a Student Support Officer.

She began the session by suggesting some basic things students ignore that could help them such as writing blogs, talking to seniors, building their LinkedIn page, making contacts, etc. She explained how the Hustle culture is real, taking initiatives, being consistent, doing internships while showing how you are different, looking for inspiration, managing time properly and how maintaining a balance is the key.

The meeting then continued with a very detailed, interactive, informative, and fun Q&A session.

Bunts Sangha's S.M.Shetty College's Department of mass media and communication skills hosted their 2nd "Alumni Guardian Angel" session for the academic year 2021-22.

The guardian angel for this session was Ditipriya Acharaya, after completing her PG Diploma from XIC, she began freelancing as a scriptwriter, content writer and editor.

She began the session by saying how the media industry isn't easy and one needs contacts if they want to go far ahead. She said her work for Resonant, Samvarta and Samachar helped her a lot and motivated others to go for it. She mentioned that participating in various college activities helps.

The session concluded with a very informative Q and A session.

The Department of Mass Media and Communication Skills organized the third Alumni Guardian Angel Meet on Saturday, July 24 2021 with Alumni Harsita Rajshekar, who graduated from S.M Shetty College in the academic year 2018-19. Harshita Rajshekar is a Senior Brand Manager at Digital Republik and Digital Marketing Manager at Mobilogix Inc. USA. She studied Journalism in her third year at S.M. Shetty.

Guardian Angel meets are conducted so that students can benefit in their professional lives by learning from senior alumni, getting to hear about interesting job opportunities.

This session commenced with host Farhan Khan from SYBAMMC welcoming Harsita Rajshekar and all the students followed by words from Coordinator Kalpana Rai Menon and Prof. Neena Sharma addressing the gathering and praising Harsita as she made it to Sr Brand Manager just at the age of 22.

Harsita introduced all the attendees to Brand Management and the skills required to be a Brand Manager and emphasized the importance of multi-tasking, teamwork and communication skills and in particular how important it is to communicate effectively. She gave the students insights on how Multi-National Corporations work, how to approach various companies, what mindset to keep, ongoing work needed to maintain a consistent brand identity, why good communication skills play an integral role in the development of a brand, realities of the digital marketing industry etc.

A QnA session was held where Harsita cleared several questions. Questions on what to choose after graduation, whether to opt for a post-graduation degree or gain experience in a workspace, how to ace interviews, particular things to follow during college etc. She advised all students thinking about transitioning to a new field or just wanting to brush up on those accounting skills should take advantage of continuing education classes, certificate programs, or course audits. Harshita made the session fun and interactive at the same time made crucial points.

Vaishnavi Moolya from SYBAMMC gave the vote of thanks, expressing our gratitude to Harsita for giving the students her time and enlightening us with their knowledge and encouragement.

Vaishnavi on behalf of all the attendees also thanked the teachers and the students involved in organizing this webinar.

Bunts Sangha's SM Shetty College's Department of Mass Media and Communication Skills hosted its 4th AGA meet on 31st July 2021.

Over 50 students participated and made the most of the event.

The event was anchored by TY-AD student, Labhashri Shetty.

The speaker Alumni for this event was Mr Ausaaf Kherani who gave some interesting insights on life after College in the professional world.

Ausaaf Kherani graduated from SM Shetty in 2019. Did his BMM with a specialization in Journalism.

He Has Been a senior journalist in the A/M sector and made his move to advertising in 2021. He then Joined Creative Agency Flying Cursor Interactive as a Senior Copywriter and currently works on Mahindra SUVs and Disney India.

Along with his Copywriting for Flying Cursor, he has also freelanced with several brands like Bombay Shaving Company, Marico, Boat to name a few.

He is also into session music and is often involved in studio work with different bands/projects.

Ausaaf spoke about the importance of participating in college events and extracurricular to shape personalities and to explore what work one would be interested in taking up as a career. To always keep options open. To explore new work aspects.

Grab each opportunity and don't be afraid if you'd be good at it or not because you'll not know it till you give it a shot, to inculcate the habit of reading and maintaining consistency at things one likes to do, to hustle and most importantly to take care of our mental health, do things that make you feel alive and definitely to surround oneself with people who brings positivity and growth.

The meeting was then carried on with an interactive Q&A and ended with a Vote of thanks by TY-AD CR, Sneha Radhakrishnan.
