The Department of Mass Media and Communications Skills of Bunts Sangha's S.M Shetty College of Science, Commerce and Management Studies conducted a Pathwise Session on 24th March, 2023. The resource person for the session was Mr. Aniket Anant Gangan.

He is an Assistant Director by profession and has worked on multiple notable projects.

The session covered a range of topics related to the art and craft of filmmaking. Mr Aniket started with the basics of storytelling, such as narrative structure, character development, and conflict. He then proceeded with the pre-production process, including script development, storyboarding, location scouting, and casting.

He also provided an overview of different camera types and lenses, as well as lighting techniques for different situations. He also discussed the basics of editing, including selecting and organizing footage, creating a rough cut, and adding sound effects and music. The event ended with a Q&A session where Mr Aniket answered all the varied doubts from the attendees.
