Report

The Department of Mass Media and Communication Skills of Bunts Sangha's SM College of Science, Commerce and Management Studies, Studio Club organized a 'Report Writing Session' for first year BAMMC students on 6th October, 2021 as part of their student skill sharing initiative 'Studio Plus'. The resource persons for the same were Pragati Tiwari (Editor in chief: Studio Samachar) and Saisaranyya Menon (Content Writer: Studio Samachar).

The session began with Pragati Tiwari explaining what Studio Samachar is about, then moving forward she explained the basics of how to write a report for college, magazine and a news article. In which she covered the basic mistakes students commit, basic grammatical errors and also how to cover and write reports for college events. She explained it by taking examples of some articles from Studio Samachar's site.

Later Saisaranyya Menon shared her experience as the content writer of studio Samachar, as she started working online. She explained how she covers and writes the report for the events that are held online. She also gave some dos and don'ts to look for whilst writing a report. There were 33 attendees. The event was then concluded with an announcement of a blog writing competition.

Suggestions

-It was good I think they should start more activities.

-Maybe the timespan can be more so that more topics are covered and it could be more interactive.

Feedback

Well looking forward to be a part of studio plus ❤️
