Education, in the truest self of the term, is a process of self-discovery. It is the art of self-sculpture. It trains the individual not so much in specific skills or in specific branch of knowledge, but in the flowering of his or her latent intellectual, artistic and humanist capacities.” - Atal Bihari Vajpayee

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

CA Shankar B. Shetty

I am very happy to communicate with parents, students and teachers through this annual magazine. Every academic year is a challenging journey and our focus is to make new achievements through various new initiatives and programmes. We always believe in fostering excellence through the latest infrastructure, a dedicated, well trained and committed teaching fraternity, who we always think are our USP. Lot of emphasis has been given to train them through educational experts, by creating transparent communication system between parents, teachers, students, principals and management. Unrestricted and free flow of information between all of them is very vital and valuable. We have created and encouraged such robust system of communication in our organization, which is accordingly working very smoothly and efficiently. We have identified many areas where we need to work hard and need to introduce new system to get desired result and also working to identify the black spots and will develop methods to understand and overcome their issues.

Apart from core education we are encouraging & facilitating other activities so that our students are complete individuals, when they complete their education in line with our vision "Personality Development for Nation Building". Many new initiatives were taken in identifying and developing sports persons. We have created state-of-the-art sports arena on terrace and also appointed many talented sports trainers in different field to train our budding talents. These initiatives are expected to yield results in the coming years.

Dream big, work hard, be positive and optimistic in life, and develop self confidence. This country has all potential of realizing one's dream. The best is yet to come and the coming decades belong to us.

My advice to all is to take advantage of the position, where we are in, keep our minds open, position our self to take advantage of the situation and opportunities available. We have golden era ahead, which may not have been before. Management is always there with you for any support and help to achieve your goal.

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

Shri .Harish Vasu Shetty

We all agree that the young students today are more informed, more agile and better decision makers. But at the same time, today's generation is facing more dilemma, more competition and more challenges than ever before.

India is changing, so is the perception of youth towards life. Gone are the days when the professional qualification was the only key to success. Today, there are no pre-coded thumb rules for success, anyone with any qualification can become successful. The determinants for success are, however, hard work, commitment, perseverance and preparedness for the opportunities. Therefore, our country today requires education which helps the youth become skilled to identify opportunities, put efforts in right direction and should not give up due to initial failures. The purpose of education should be not only to impart knowledge but also develop wisdom to use it.

We at Bunts Sangha's S.M. Shetty College are determined not only to impart quality education based on the prescribed syllabus of the University of Mumbai, but also give numerous opportunities to the students to identify their talents and interest area and sharpen them to outperform others in this competitive world. The institution and its faculty members have been providing an all-round support system to make the students more skilled and employable. The co-curricular and extra-curricular activities are organised in large number on varied areas, state-of-the-art infrastructural support is provided, numerous programs and sessions are organised to enhance the skill and knowledge of the students.

The three years spent in the college are golden years not only because these are the most enjoyable years but are golden because they give ample of time and opportunities to sharpen one's saw, that is, to become future-ready.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL

Dr. Sridhara Shetty

"In the New Economy, knowledge rather than natural resources is the raw material of business."

No doubt, education is the highest wealth creator across the globe and equalizer of socio-economic and cultural status of citizens of a country. To be a wealth creator it must deliver relevance, quality and excellence and must meet the challenges of time. It is said that there is no unemployment if one is employable. How he/she becomes employable is left to the wisdom of students. To a graduate or post graduate or technocrat employment is the meeting place of his / her preparedness with opportunity.

In this context, there is a need to distinguish between educational output and educational outcome. Educational output is reflected in terms of percentage of results, distinctions and first classes and on the other hand educational outcome would result in acquiring fundamental knowledge about the subject studied, application of the knowledge in real life and work place or soft skills and acquiring values, positive attitude and social and life skills. The latter would unleash the human potential within every student.

In today's scenario, students obtain qualification but largely missing competency which is absolutely required. Qualification is just academic degrees. But competency covers and includes knowledge, attitude, skills, habits and value system. Hence there is a need for competency mapping and building. Looking and observing the current employment scenario, competency building and mapping should become part of the curriculum by deliberately creating space in the teaching pedagogy.

Graduate attributes is the second important factor which is long due for rejuvenation. When our students come out from the portals of the university education, they must exhibit graduate attributes which will produce and sustain emotional wealth, intellectual wealth and financial wealth. The graduate attributes broadly include the following:

- (a) Accept and practice a blend of traditional and modern values,
- (b) Environment and gender sensitive with inclusive and secular outlook,
- (c) Accept education as a means of social and economic empowerment,
- (d) Accept scholastic, career and value oriented challenges,
- (e) Able to manage change and absorb change and,
- (f) Be employment ready.

In a youth dominated country like India, higher education should be given top priority. Empowering the youth is empowering the nation. It must emerge as a most favored agenda of public expenditure.

I thank our benevolent management, Vice-Principal, coordinators, teaching fraternity, non-teaching staff and students and parents for taking this higher seat of learning to a newer height. We believe in the statement that nothing gives us more satisfaction than the work well done, whether small or big.

FROM THE VICE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dr. Liji Santosh
