Annual Day Report
15th Annual Day Celebrations

Venue: Open Air Auditorium

On 23rd December 2024, Bunts Sangha's S M Shetty College of Science, Commerce, and Management Studies, Powai (Autonomous), celebrated its 15th Annual Day with great enthusiasm at the Open Air Auditorium. The event, marking the culmination of the academic year, was graced by esteemed dignitaries, faculty, students, and distinguished guests. The celebrations, which began at 6:00 p.m., were characterized by a series of cultural performances, speeches, and a formal ceremony that honored the outstanding contributions of students.

The 15th Annual Day celebrations commenced with a soulful Prayer Song, invoking blessings for the event's success. This was followed by a graceful Classical Dance Performance, setting a vibrant tone for the evening. The event featured a variety of captivating performances that showcased India's rich cultural heritage. One of the standout performances was Maurya Vansh ki Gatha (321 BCE – 185 BCE), a compelling enactment that depicted the grandeur of the Mauryan dynasty. The Institutional Song, celebrating the ethos of the institution, was followed by a Mono Acting performance, where students displayed their acting skills and creativity, adding to the evening's charm. These performances not only entertained but also highlighted the cultural diversity that the college embodies.

The formal part of the celebrations began with the traditional Lighting of the Lamp, symbolizing the removal of darkness and the arrival of knowledge. Following this, a Floral Welcome was extended to the distinguished guests, a gesture of respect and hospitality.

Vice Principal, Dr. Liji Santosh, introduced the Chief Guest, Dr. Sameer Kulkarni, the CEO of Hiranandani Hospital, Powai. She spoke highly of Dr. Kulkarni's exceptional leadership in the healthcare sector and his commitment to community well-being. Dr. Santosh acknowledged his significant contributions to transforming healthcare services and expressed gratitude for his presence at the Annual Day celebrations, setting an inspiring tone for the evening.

The Annual Report was presented by I/C Principal, Mr. C.S. Sandesha Shetty, who read out a comprehensive review of the college's achievements. Mr. Shetty highlighted the institution's significant accomplishments over the past year, with a special emphasis on academic excellence, sports achievements, and the success of cultural activities. His address underscored the holistic development of students, emphasizing the college's continuous efforts to foster both academic and extracurricular growth.

A highlight of the evening was the Prize Distribution segment, where students were recognized for their exceptional achievements in academics, sports, and co-curricular activities. This recognition was a testament to the hard work and dedication of the students. Additionally, two faculty members, Dr. Namrata Dubey and Dr. Remya George, who recently completed their PhDs, were felicitated for their academic excellence and contributions to education. Their accomplishments served as an inspiration to both students and faculty, reflecting the college's commitment to research and continuous learning.

Chairman Mr. Ratnakar Shetty Mundgur addressed the gathering, emphasizing the college's commitment to providing holistic education that extends beyond academics. He spoke about the college's role in shaping well-rounded individuals who excel in academics, extracurricular activities, leadership, and social responsibility. He encouraged students to embrace opportunities for growth and strive for excellence in all aspects of life, contributing to both personal success and the betterment of the community.

Dr. Sameer Kulkarni Chief guest of the event inspired the students with words of wisdom. He encouraged them to strive for excellence in all areas of life, not just academics. Dr. Kulkarni spoke about the significance of leadership, emphasizing integrity, vision, and perseverance. He also highlighted the importance of community service, urging students to make a positive impact. He was amused by the fact that parents were allowed to come for the annual day. He also said that college acts as a bridge between academic excellence and professional excellence. He further spoke about the transformative power of education in shaping successful futures and motivating students to use their knowledge and skills to overcome challenges and contribute to society.

The event was concluded with the Presidential Remarks by Mr. Praveen Bhoja Shetty, emphasizing the college's ongoing efforts toward academic growth and cultural enrichment. He also stated that the message conveyed by Maurya Vansha ki katha is important to be inculcated and followed by the entire world.

The Vote of Thanks was delivered by Mrs. Kalpana Rai Menon, the Head of Student Welfare, who expressed gratitude to all the distinguished guests, faculty members, students, and organizers for their contributions toward making the event a resounding success.

In addition to the speeches, the evening featured performances depicting historical periods, such as Veer Rajput, Chola Samrajya, Mughal Vansh, and Maratha Shashan. These performances,
